

Stratford Law Firm Kicks Off Hispanic Community Outreach

Tim Pletter of Stratford, CT has hired a new bilingual legal assistant to help underserved CT residents who need bankruptcy and foreclosure help.

STRATFORD, CT October 21, 2013

Tim Pletter of The Law Office of Ambrogio, Pletter and & Assoc. is very excited to announce that he has hired Catalina Bazan as a new bilingual legal assistant. Catalina's background in real estate and banking will help Attorney Pletter and his staff guide clients through the foreclosure and bankruptcy systems. Her Colombian heritage will allow her to communicate fluently with Attorney Pletter's many Spanish speaking clients and provide them with an even greater level of comfort. She will work with the Hispanic Community in Bridgeport, Norwalk, New Haven, Milford, Stratford and the surrounding areas to help those facing foreclosure and insurmountable debt.

Catalina Bazan

“The Hispanic community has recently accounted for the largest decline in wealth as a result of loss of home equity. I look forward to helping Attorney Pletter reach out to this hard working community so that they get another chance at the American dream.”
